

Dear {{ contact.FIRSTNAME }},

As you might've noticed, the new weekly uploaded video was sent with the previous newsletter by error. Apologies for this!

The new video is to be watched on the Awareify YouTube Channel or through the button in the section below.

Update since yesterday:

Bitcoin is currently looking to find support and retest the area of the break-out. If it can hold the level $49,000 and then break-out above $52,000 it should see the Crypto market go up further, with Ethereum and some of the Alts likely to outperform Bitcoin in the next rally.

If it fails to break out above $52,000, then it could see the Crypto's consolidate further downwards or sideways.

Make sure to follow our Twitter and IG to stay updated when the break is confirmed!

Cheers!

Faro
